

Have you ever searched for a different free time experience but sports shopping or just hanging out with friends ? Something more creative but still social and not in front of your computer ? A way to experience new worlds or even create your own stories? Then CREATE and PLAY located at Vorderer Lech 43 should be the perfect place for you.

The store is the only Local Game Store in Augsburg and offers a wide variety of Table top, Board and Trading Card Games and is a hotspot for the local community.

The Store first opened in 2012. “I always loved Tabletop games and had the idea of opening a store to create a community and bring people together in the back of my head for some time. So when I saw the chance I just took it and opened up CREATE and PLAY.” Said Gregor Lengsfeld the owner of the store.

Over the course of the next ten years CREATE and PLAY has evolved into a loved place among Table top and trading card players. Asking what makes the store so special and a gem in Augsburg he states “You can meet a lot of great people at the store and play games with them without really knowing them. Everyone is open and communicative.”

Besides the social aspect you can also buy all sorts of products like board games, dice, card games, paint brushes, colors and accessories needed. If you got any questions or need some assistance you will certainly get advisory.

If you got interested don't hesitate to visit the shop and try out some games. Everyone is welcome. Join in, no matter if new to the game or already a veteran, let's say it in Gregor`s Words “Everyone is welcome to the store no matter what language you speak. We'll always find a way to communicate and play some games together.
